

Golf Adjunct game at Shandon Golf Club on Sunday 23 February.

The Golf Adjunct had a fantabulous day out at the Shandon Golf Club on Sunday 23 February. There was a full field, and the course was in pristine condition. Sun umbrellas were to the fore as it was hot.

The outgoing Management Committee (of Barry Marsh, Graeme Scott and Jimmy Smith) were thanked wholeheartedly for their sterling efforts in running the Golf adjunct over the last seven years.

A raffle was also held and the lucky winners came away happy. Thank you to those of you who provided bottles and wine and to Kelly's Flowers who provided two lovely bouquets of flowers and to the Johnsonville Club for the Bar Vouchers (Bobby Gibbins, Paul Johansen and Liz Boynton). We'd also like to thank the Shandon Club for hosting us. Thank you to Group 1 for doing the scoring (Chris McManaway – especially appreciated) and Group 2 for collecting Raffle proceeds.

All players were able to have a free drink at the bar from the fine proceeds from last year's outings collected by Sheriff Mark Bowman. Wel-ldone Bowie. That was most appreciated.

A number of our players availed themselves of the carts - which, by decree, are now able to be used as part of any Golf adjunct competitions.

The next game is at Wainuiomata Golf club on Sunday 23 March. The top 16 players will automatically fill the first 16 slots of the field so make sure you get in quickly as the remaining spots will fill up quickly to be sure to be sure.

Annual Golf Adjunct Subscriptions are now due ($20) so please get these paid at the Johnsonville Club Bar (and get a receipt as well).

We are in the process of streamlining our processes so that the Adjunct games are run as efficiently and smoothly as possible. We now have an ap we are using 'Heja' to good effect.

All Golf Adjunct members will be called upon to help and as we all know – many hands make light work.

See you at Wainuiomata Golf Club on Sunday 23 March.
