

Golf Adjunct game at Foxton Golf Club on Sunday 13 April 2025.

A wonderful day was had at the Foxton Golf Club on Sunday 13 April. It was indeed full of wonder. There was a field of 31 players the men playing off the white tees and Liz the yellows. The weather was once again glorious, and everyone came away having had a time of it. The course was in fairly good condition and proved to be as formidable as ever. Even though it's a bit of a drive to get to Foxton it was a good deal for only $20 Green Fees (which, interestingly, have now gone up to $40).

As well as Foxton Golf Club for hosting us (thanks Mike, Ash and Diane), we'd also like to thank the following:

- Pete Rendell for collecting our green fees (an unenviable task)
- those of you who provided wine bottles (even the ornate orange ones)

- Ben Fisher and NZ Rugby for the apparel (more to come in Carterton)
- the Johnsonville Club for the Bar Vouchers.
- Everyone who helped out on the day to make it such a success.

The Hole in Two (or fewer) Prize pool was struck by no fewer than three players. Their tour cards are in the mail.

So, far the post-game raffles have proven popular – not surprising given that the raffle proceeds go towards the following month's prizes.

The pre-game briefing had to be deferred due to four stragglers but unbeknownst to them - they have all volunteered to become the scorers at Carterton. Those men deserve a DB.

All the scorecards were given to Foxton for them to enter so they should appear in due course.
